June 1 - On account of the death of Dency A. Wilbur, a former teacher in our school Children's Day was postponed one week making the date June 15.

The Bible Class were appointed to draw up resolutions on the death of Dency A. Wilbur.

The following resolutions were presented:

Dency A. Wilbur for years a beloved and valued member of our Bible School died at her home in Union Village on May 29, 1919. For many years she was the faithful and efficient teacher of the Primary class and won and kept the love and devotion of the children.

She was a faithful visiting teacher and knew the environment of every child, coming in close contact with the mothers, to whom she was often helpful in many ways.

Parents who were not members or attendants of Friends meeting, appreciated the privilege of having their ~~children~~ little ones in Miss Wilbur's class. She possessed the Christian virtue of sympathy, and many sad and sorrowing hearts have been comforted and strengthened by her loving words of cheer.

After giving up the work of teaching the little children, she became a member and teacher for many years of the Bible Class.

For the past two years on account of failing health she was not able to attend regularly but still took an active interest in the school work and contributed liberally to its support.

We mourn the loss of our friend, but she has left to us a precious memory. Her life was long and useful, its closing housing beautiful.

"She went in through the sunset gateway
To the city paved with gold,
To dwell in the hills of Heaven,
And be no longer old."

Perhaps it might be fitting to record here that June 1 a memorial service was held in the morning meeting, members of different organizations connected with the Church giving expression to the many kind deeds done during her life.

June 22 - The following committee were appointed to make plans for the annual picnic - Edgar G. Paine & Everett Ross on transportation - Josephine Todd on refreshments, Emma P. Fair & M. B. Fuller on games etc. Edgar G. Paine being unable to serve, Abbie Todd was appointed.

Nov. 30th Helen Frances, H.J. Cleaver + Robt. Ewen were appointed to arrange a Thanksgiving Proclamation to be read in S.S. Nov. 23.

Nov. 23 - The Thanksgiving Proclamation was read and ordered recorded and is as follows: Inasmuch as our Heavenly Father has brought us safely through this another twelve months, we take back this season of Thanksgiving with a thought as to our causes of thankfulness.

As a nation, we are thankful for the cessation of war, for the improvement in the labor situation and progress toward national prohibition.

As a community, we are thankful that sickness has not been so prevalent among us as last year.

As a Sunday School, we are thankful for our efficient officers and that our numbers are increasing.

As classes, we are thankful for our teachers, our courses of study, and the individual faithfulness.

As individuals we have reasons to be thankful for home, food, health, friends and relations, belongings, advantages, work, recreation, and happiness.

At this season we would show our appreciation of these gifts by personal devotion and service as expressed in the words of Scripture.

"Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise.

Serve the Lord with gladness, with a perfect heart and a willing hand."

Nov. 30 The bills on hand were ordered paid.

Mar. 21. The resolutions on the death of Emma Paine Farr were read and ordered spread on the records and a copy to be sent to the family.

The resolutions follow:

It is with deep grief in the loss which the Society of Friends has sustained and sympathy for the husband and family who are bereaved, that the Friends' Bible School records the death of Emma Paine Farr at her home in Union Village, on the thirteenth day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty.

All the Bible School will sorrow not merely for the loss to their school of a teacher and officer whose work was helpful, inspiring and filled with optimistic enthusiasm to a remarkable degree, but for the loss of a personal friend, one who brought genuine interest, cheer, happiness and a generous helpfulness into all her relationships.

The question of having the Bible

School begin at 12 o'clock instead of 12:10 was discussed. It was thought best to have it thus announced by the Supt. on the coming Sunday.

(Suggestion from the flower committee that instead of having flower calendars printed at some expense, post cards be sent, was received and fifty cents from treasury was appropriated for expense of cards.

The idea of a contest was discussed. The choosing of a committee was left to the discretion of the Supt., this committee to outline the rules of the contest.

Feb. 3 A communication in the form of a memorial was presented by Nellie Phillips. The matter of decision in regard to it was left until next Sunday

Feb. 10 The resolution as presented by Nellie Phillips was accepted and is as follows.

"There has been in my mind a growing concern that our Sabbath School should fittingly perpetuate the memory of the Anna Cranston.

"Honor to those whose words or deeds,
Thus help us in our daily needs;
And by their overflow
Raise us from what is low!"

Longfellow

With early Friends such a concern usually took the form of a written memorial. It is my hope, however that with us it might take on a form more in keeping with the good deeds and daily Christian practices of those devoted women.

In fact, can we hope to accomplish this in a more befitting way than by aiding a cause that we know won and held their sympathy?

For that reason I feel that I should suggest that our Sabbath School designate one Sabbath in the year as "Alice and Anna Cranston Day" and that Sabbath School money collected on that day be appropriated for a permanent fund, and allowed to accumulate for ten years in bank at Detroit and at the end of that time be invested and the annual income from it to be applied to Sabbath School Missionary Work.

That in brief is my concern to perpetuate "A noble type of good" and my desire that our Sabbath School should transmit luminant rays "From portals of the past."

In sponsoring this idea, I would like to make the first contribution.

The choosing of a date for this collection was left to the Executive Committee. A contest beginning Feb. 17 lasting ten weeks was announced. Lester Faber is to be judge. Each class chooses a captain who divides her class into "red" + "blue". April 4. It was announced that there would be no S.S. on the day of Quarterly Meeting, this decision being given by the executive meeting.

Walter Symes + Russell Rose were appointed trustees of the "Anna + Alice Cranston Fund". It was decided to have an annual collection May 1st to add to the original.

April 21 The following committee was appointed to arrange a supper for the winning side. Morwenna Tellier, Nellie M. Fisher, Maurice Shirley, Edward Cameron Florence Sayles, Russell Jones.

Eunice Estes, Melita Fisher, Ruth Sayles, Robert Wilson, Louise Ewen were appointed as the entertainment committee.

This supper is to be held May 1st.

May 5 Today being the first Irma & Alice Cranton Day, Morwenna Tellier gave a brief account of their lives & what the day meant, closing with Whittier's "Eternal Goodness". Some of A. B. Farr's former class including him & his wife, Mabel A. Thayer, Mr & Mrs. A. E. Todd, remained.

The Scripture contest was participated in by Evelyn & Margaret Wilson, Kent Fisher & Eunice Estes. A. B. Farr, H. S. France & Mae B. Todd, the judges awarded the first place to Eunice Estes, second Kent Fisher.

May 26. At an executive meeting held at the close of S.S. it was decided to send three delegates to R.I. Summer School at Kingston The choice of these to be made by the Superintendent

It was voted to close S.S. during August + that no session would be held the day of Yearly Meeting June 30th
